

Presented in partnership with

The Athens Area Community Foundation is launching a signature Board Leadership Training, consisting of four separate workshops:

- ON YOUR MARK, for nonprofit leaders;
- READY, leaders new to serving or looking to serve on a board of directors
- SET, for leaders currently serving on boards;
- GO, for current Board Chairs and Executive Directors to dive deeper;

These courses are stand-alone courses. You can attend just one. Or several. Or attend them all – you choose your path!

Course Details

Each workshop will be held twice. The first workshop of each month will be hosted at Jackson EMC's Jefferson Campus. The second workshop of each month will be hosted at Synovus Bank in downtown Athens.

Registration is $15 per attendee. The registration fee includes breakfast. 100% of the registration fees will be returned to the community through donations to nonprofits in our community.

Tickets are non-refundable. In the event you cannot attend after purchasing a ticket, your purchase will become a donation and can support someone else attending.

Each workshop is limited to 25 attendees.

WORKSHOP LEADER

Victoria Prevatt

Founder, Good Works

For over 20 years, Victoria Prevatt has worked with organizations at the crossroads of board governance, philanthropy, and storytelling.

She's had the opportunity to serve a broad range of nonprofits – from small grassroots startups to legacy institutions with global impact. Throughout her career, Victoria has worked on behalf of missions that range from affordable housing, higher education, conservation, and youth development.

In 2017, she founded Good Works to be a resource for the nonprofit community. Victoria is on a mission to elevate and enhance the experience and impact of nonprofit leaders, board members, and investors. She believes nonprofits are the heartbeat of a community – and communities deserve a healthy and happy heart.
